

PALACIO DEL INKA
HOTEL
CUSCO

THE LUXURY
COLLECTION

PALACIO DEL INKA, A LUXURY COLLECTION HOTEL

- It was part of the most famous temple of Inca times, QoriKancha (Temple of the Sun), declared National Heritage of Cusco.
- Stone of the 8 angles, an archaeological piece that was part of an imperial Inca wall, believed to be connected to the practice of important rituals of the time.
- Original Inca stone wall, 64 m² long, located inside the hotel bar.
- The suites of the Casona de los Cuatro Bustos, were a Colonial residence during the XVI century.
- 195 colonial art works are on display, 60 of which are original paintings of the Cusco School.
- Andes Spirit Spa, offers a wide range of revitalizing treatments and is the only spa with thermal circuit in the city of Cusco.
- BYREDO created "Le Chemin" specifically for The Luxury Collection. A luxury high quality indigenous bath amenity line. The scent is composed of raw materials from all corners of the earth and is a true representation of the never ending path.
- Andrea Collection by Frette features an exclusive range of 400-thread count linens, as well as a cashmere throw and duvet cover printed with a signature pattern blending classical influences and modern elegance.
- Located four blocks from the Main Square of Cusco.
- There are 203 rooms and suites with decorations in wood and walls hand-painted by famous local artisans.
- Inti Raymi Restaurant: outstands for its regional and international cuisine using local ingredients, the only one with a detox and gluten-free station in Cusco. It offers indoor and outdoor service.
- Rumi Bar: Offers an unrivalled ambience to enjoy exquisite cocktails accompanied by light appetizers.
- 5 events rooms that can hold up to 400 people. Ideal for corporate or social events.
- Available activities in the hotel and outside: Pisco lessons, dinners with live shows, tasting menu, cooking lessons, city tours, excursion to Machu Picchu citadel, Rainbow mountain, Moray ruins, Maras salt mines, among others.
- Free Wi-Fi in all the hotel facilities.